Hops and whispers

By Pia, Lauren, Brooke, Jian

*In a quiet and green meadow, little bunnies hop around the willow.
Soft wind whispers through the grass, as golden moments slowly pass.
Butterflies drift in the sun, dancing freely, one by one, Dewdrops sparkle, fresh and bright, welcoming in the morning light.
Birdsong floats across the air, bringing calm beyond compare,
And in this peaceful place below, the world moves gently, soft and slow Flowers sway with colors bold,
Their petals catching sunlight gold.
A brook hums softly as it flows, Reflecting skies in gentle glows..*
